

Michael Kiske, Watch Your Blue

[M&L - M. Kiske]

Now you're well educated
All you speak sounds so well
All class is demonstrated
There's really not much to tell
With perfect look and perfect smell
With perfect style, all perfect well:
Watch your blue if your precious black!

Nothing you do could bother
All that you wear looks clean
You satisfy your father
In everyway life looks green

No one ever makes it better
No one ever beats you, never:
Watch your blue if your precious black!

But I - it seems I don't mind
I'm wasting a lifetime to bring down
What could wear that crown
My head - grows heavy instead
A heart made of stone
Potential unknown!

In darkness we kill our partners
In darkness we speak our minds
Don't let us look inside there!
Who knows what we might find?

Get it on and get it all
No one wins by thinking small:
Watch your blue if your precious black!

And I ...

Stay what's to stay!
Say what to say!
Pray when you pray!
Fear when you fear!

Here comes the feeling lonely
And here comes the feeling blue
Innocence's lost so truly
Innocence's gone, that's true

I - it seems I don't mind ..
