

Michael Kiske, Where Wishes Fly

[M&L - Taraxes/Kiske]

Some say the prize is paid
Some preach eternal pay
Where you go nobody knows!

Before you came to me
Life was light and clean
Where we go nobody knows nobody!

Forget tomorrow!
We have today!
And we steal the night? A good try will show!
Can we go and leave it?
Words alone won't do!
When their lights get dim let's see what still glows!

Will you stay with me
When HE can't set me free?
Will you love me when nobody knows my name?

Would you see me through
When I'm just a burden for you?
Can I catch you when nobody knows your name?

Say we're together!
We stop the time!
These feelings come from where spirits fly!
Come see our treasures!
Let's tolerate!
These spirits come from where wishes fly!
From where wishes fly!...
