

Michael Learns To Rock, Final Destination

I believe in the world
When I see the beauty in a girl like you
And I believe that all my dreams of yesterday
Are one touch away

(Chorus)
Wanna be you final destination
Wanna be the station where you jump off the train
Let's make a story about you and me
This love is meant to be

I believe that life
Is giving back to you what you sacrifice
All the tears I cry disappear with the love I see
Right next to me

(Chorus)
