

Michael Nesmith, Calico Girlfriend

Me and my calico girlfriend
Starting a set of new rules
Watching the stars as they drop in Making the nighttime approve

Wandering over a roadway
Changing the signs of the times
Looking for love and a new day
Seeing with more than our eyes

Keeper of men and the shadows
Follow us up to the top
Taking the latch off the window
Giving us more than we drop

Me and my calico girlfriend
Suddenly stare at the face
Of time and its hope that we'll win
Then softly drop out of the race

Keeper of men and the shadows
Follow us up to the top
Taking the latch off the window
Giving us more than we drop

Me and my calico girlfriend
Suddenly stare at the face
Of time and its hope that we'll win
Then softly drop out of the race
