Michael Peterson, Being Human

(Tom Shapiro/Chuck Jones)

Jenny's got a nose ring and tattoo on her skin
All her friends are doin' it and she wants to fit in
It's not about rebellion, she just has a need
To feel like she belongs
Her mama takes one look at her and flies into a rage
Says, "When you gonna grow up child and learn to act your age?"
But when a young girl's cry for attention
Lies beyond her mama's comprehension, it's just

Human beings being human Not sure what they're doing Trying to do the best they can Just human beings being human Every woman, child, and man

Harry's turning 49, his hair is turning gray Now he's acting like he's longing for his glory days He buys a Harley, dyes his hair, he's lifting weights And wearing new cologne His wife of 20 years is worried where it's gonne lead Will he turn to someone else to fill his every need? Lately she's afraid he's gonna leave her But he's just doing all he can to keep her, it's just...

Human beings being human Not sure what they're doing Trying to do the best they can Just human beings being human Every woman, child, and man

Sometimes we doubt, sometimes we fear Often wonder why we're here Where do we fit in the plan We're all bound to make mistakes And when we do It helps to understand it's just...

Human beings being human Not sure what they're doing Trying to do the best they can Just human beings being human Every woman, child, and man

Human beings being human Not sure what they're doing Trying to do the best they can Just human beings being human Every woman, child, and man