

Michael Ruff, Once In A Lifetime

time heals, they say, i will someday
for now there still is pain all hearts will mend mine just wont
when i cant help feeling i'll never have the chance to say she lost one could ever need...

chorus:
once in a lifetime baby, once in a lifetime, thats all once in a lifetime, maybe

leave now, goodbye tears fall from my eyes i know there's always pain love's light turns off seems now i've lost the only one that i'll ever have the chance to say was all

ad lib

repeat chorus

i know i'll never have this chance again...
