

Michael Schenker Group, Emergency

Travelling through time
From the past into now
Fighting my ghosts
They appear anyhow

I had a vision
A calling
I'm wondering was I alone

This house is haunted
Give warning
911 - answer the phone

It's emergency
That's why my life could be
A drama score
Loneliness
Seems that I've seen this movie once before

Still feel alive
In the dead of night
No one believes
Well, I need some relief
