

Michael Schenker Group, In And Out Of Time

(Music: M. Schenker / Lyrics & Melodies: K. Keeling)

The sky is crying
Who's looking over and out for you
The War machine is lying on the ground
Are we waiting for power to make its big mistake
Better learn to rely on love and not the hate

We're running In And Out Of Time
There's a blood red skyline

They're sleeping in their minds it's time to awaken clear the aristocracy brethren this is no Milan vacation

Are we waiting for the messengers of power to throw it all away it's not happening tomorrow it's happening now
Today

We're running in and out of time on the blood red sky blind

So I'm writing a letter of hope tonight
Send a message
To who will maybe hear
I don't understand what they are fighting for
And if I make it back
I will prove to you
It was nothing
All for nothing
Both sides are hoping Praying
Feeling
All the same

What's going through their minds and dreams please tell me
System is fading slowly out
It's gonna be a rude awakening
Over and out

I'll be waiting for the messengers of power to throw it all away it's not happening tomorrow it's happening now
Today
