

Michael Schenker Group, Live For Today

Storm's closing in
The kind that makes the world upside down
Following the clouds
Is it another old illusion that it's all O.K.?
Won't it go away for good?
At times it makes us pass the time so slowly
Maybe I should say I would one more time

Time to live
Living for today
So much to give
Something's on the way

So here it is again
It's waiting like a long lost friend
Stealing from your hand
Where's your higher faith?
Why can't you hear it?
So would you?

Won't it go away for good?
At times it makes us pass the time so slowly
Maybe I should say I should let it go

Time to live
Living for today
So much to give
Something's on the way

Storm's closing in
The kind that makes the world turn
Upside down
Here it is again like a long lost friend
