

Michael Schenker Group, Turning Off The Emotions

(Music: M.Schenker / Lyrics & Melodies: K. Keeling)

Found you in the dark
Reeking of a cheap perfume
Hiding in the park
Why are you so alone?
No one knows her name
Is it just a good disguise?
Just another fallen angel cast aside

[Chorus:]
She says it's alright being alone
As she hides from herself
Turning Off The Emotions
A broken angel sometimes in white
Riding the waves 'till the fear and the fight is gone
To another song
What's so wrong?
So she loves the sun

Found you in the car
No more fuel a hazy day
Have you gone too far trusting no one

She says it's alright being alone as she hides from herself
Turning Off The Emotions
A broken Angel sometimes in white
Riding the waves 'till the morning and moonlight says it's alright
She is her home
Finding herself Turning Off The Emotions
A lonely angel searching for life
Riding the waves 'till the fear and the fight is gone

Found you in the dark
Drinking all that she could find
Hiding in the park
Still so alone

Says it's alright
leave it alone

[Chorus]
