

Michal, Lovesick

I'm lovesick
And every fiber of my being aches
And I am rendered useless
By this love

It consumes me
I didn't have the chance
I've been stricken
My heart is in your hands
I'm lovesick, oh

Love has meant so many things to me
In my short, short lifetime
And none of them have been good
No, but then you come along
And now life is a song

And I'll love you 'til the end
And I'll love you 'til the end

If I possess an immortal soul
And God wills
That we shall not be together

Then I'll wait for you
I will pass through that dark night
Loving you more
I'm lovesick
Oh, oh

Love has meant so many things to me
In my short, short lifetime
And none of them have been good
No, but now you come along
And now life is a song

And I'll love you 'til the end
And I'll love you 'til the end
And I'll love you
'Til the end
