

Michala Banas, Kissing The Wind

whatching you work your wheels spining round i cant say that im not inspired by you but baby it hurts and your letting me down i used to be everything this is all is true, but i changed for you your kissing my mouth and im kissing the wind cant figure it out, your just trying to give in dont know where your at i remember when you used to be my lucky 7 i got lost inside your heaven but now i cant pretend coz your kissing my mouth and im kissing the wind wind wind and when we find i dont want to let go but your making the choice for me so easy.....
