Michelle Featherstone, God bless the child

God bless the child Who can find their way home God bless the child Who is weary in soul Oh beware To take care of yourself Or you lack the strength To help somebody else God bless the child Who is broken and bruised God bless the child Who just wants to be good Oh beware To take care of yourself Or you lack the strength To help somebody else So take care, so take care Of yourself Oh beware To take care of yourself Or you lack the strength To help somebody else So take care, take care Of yourself
