

Michelle Lewis, Liquid Heart

(Michelle Lewis/Teddy Kumpel)

Take notes and take cover in the sweat shirt you hide under
If they ask you, don't answer, otherwise they'll kick your ass after
There's a lipstick war at the drugstore
But you gotta get by there somehow
You're a smart girl in a dangerous world
If you just figure out what the hell to do now

Oh I know you could have everything
If you ignore the voices tearing you apart
Go girl go, you could have everything
If you can keep from drowning in your liquid heart

You're hard outside, soft inside
These few years won't be a smooth ride
Mom feels it, dad knows it
They're worried sick and they show it
Tequila, she's loaded, these rebel guns have exploded

And you can't define the line you walk
Between enemies and friends
It's hard to believe in yourself
And that someday this all will end

Oh I know you could have everything
If you ignore the voices tearing you apart
Go girl go, you could have everything
If you can keep from drowning in your liquid heart
Girl, If you can keep from drowning in your liquid heart

Ohhhhh...

You want their love but you want your space
And you're not sure which you need
So Cari dear, when it's not clear
You can always come walk with me

Oh I know you could have everything
If you ignore the voices tearing you apart
Go girl go, you could have everything
If you can keep from drowning in your liquid heart

Oh I know you could have everything
If you ignore the voices tearing you apart
Go girl go, you could have everything
If you can keep from drowning in your liquid heart
