

Michelle Poe, Love Sure Looks Good On You

I didnt know you'd find a love so soon
God, look at you
You've got a glow
You're lighting up this room
With your someone new
And hurts so much
Its tearing my heart in two
But I have to admit
Love sure looks good on you

When you were mine
Id made you shine so bright
So I dont know how all of that time
I never saw the light
But its blinding me now
And it hurts so much
Its tearing my heart in two
But I have to admit
Love sure looks good on you

You wear it well, its easy to tell you're in love again
What a sight to behold
But it sure can be cold
>From the outside looking in

I knew that you
Wouldnt be lonely long
Oh but I never dreamed
It would hurt so much
Its tearing my heart in two
But I have to admit
Love sure looks good on you
Yeah I hate to admit
Love sure looks good on you
