

Michelle Shocked, That's So Amazing

The moon is in a phase and I guess that I am too
Maybe one of these days all that I will do
Is wait and watch for the sun to make a revolution
And be blinded by the vision of that divine solution
To lift my eyes and say now that was truly amazing

That's so amazing

But the moon tonight is new and I guess I am too
And I can't see the light when it lies under a horizon
But if I'll lift my eyes I'll see a million distant suns
Guiding my way toward dawn when the sun will rise
And shine on everyone

That's so amazing!
