

Michelle Tumes, Everywhere

When the road is too lonely walking out in the rain
Through a faceless crowd where no one knows your name
Remember He's with you every stop of the way
Leading you through the endless maze

You can't find the forest on a hillside of trees
And you can't make sense of anything that you see
He'll sit beside you make you understand
The last shall be first, the lame will stand

All your life, wherever you go, wherever you are
He's by your side, He's leading you through the dark

Chorus: Every smile and every tear
Every hope and all your fears
Journeys reaching near or far
He will lead you like a guiding star, oh
Every night and every day
When you leave and if you stay
Closer than your beating heart
Please believe, He's everywhere you are

When you can never begin to find the end of your tears
When your heart cries loud and no one seems to hear
The river is wide, He'll take you by the hand
You'll walk on the water to dry land

All your life, wherever you go, wherever you are
He's by your side, and He's leading you through the dark

Chorus: Every smile and every tear
Every hope and all your fears
Journeys reaching near or far
He will lead you like a guiding star, oh
Every night and every day
When you leave and if you stay
Closer than your beating heart
Please believe, He's everywhere you are

Sun and rain, moonlit haze
Know that He will find you
In all your pain, loss or gain
Please believe

Chorus: Every smile and every tear
Every hope and all your fears
Journeys reaching near or far
Oh, He'll lead you like a guiding star, oh
Every night and every day
When you leave and if you stay
Closer than your beating heart
Please believe, He's everywhere you are

He's everywhere you are...
