

Michigan, Hang On

Come here
Let me show you what i can give you
Show no fear
All these years have passed me by
In Lies

Disappear
In the clouds where I can be free
God is near
And the rose of fading love
Will appear

Then your velvet sky will shine Deep in the night and you'll be fine
Then your patience will be tried
It won't keep you satisfied

Princess of sadness
Dancing in the dark
Trying to hang on
I sympathize with you
While you're having your fun
A second in the sun

Sitting here
Generations of the 70's
Atmosphere
Frozen tears a screaming sound
In my ears

As I hold on to your skin
I sense a passion deep within
As I stand inside your sins
Where no one else has been

Princess of sadness
Dancing in the dark
Trying to hang on
I sympathize with you
While you're having your fun
A second in the sun
