

Mickey's Bitch, Man And Beast

Living in a wartorn world
Sacrifice for what it's worth
Human bodies lie in pain
Because the beast has risen again

The fight
Between man and beast
For justice and honour
The night
That they will feast
On our flesh and bone

Walking through, the city's burnt
Gun in one hand, sinners learnt
Open your eyes up to the sky
It is red - it's time to die

The fight
Between man and beast
For justice and honour
The night
That they will feast
On our flesh and bone

??? ???
??? This is our fate
But for us there is no hope
Just a trip down the slippery slope

The fight
Between man and beast
For justice and honour
The night
That they will feast
On our flesh and bone
