

Mickey's Bitch, On The Run

Open windows hide your children
Open windows or through the floor
Barbed wire rusty impale
Underneath my tight shut door
Open windows hide your children
Open windows or through the floor
My next victim lies in waiting
Nobody could be so sure

I'm a renegade
I'm a renegade
I'm a renegade
On the run

Listen to me this is my plan
Bolt the fences like the horse
Listen to me while you still can
The time has come so show your force
Listen to me this is my plan
Bolt the fences like a horse
Any moment guards will shout out
Evening watch has run it's course

I'm a renegade
I'm a renegade
I'm a renegade
On the run

Open windows hide your children
Open windows or through the floor
My next victim lies in waiting
Nobody could be so sure

I'm a renegade
I'm a renegade
I'm a renegade
On the run

I'm a renegade
I'm a renegade
I'm a renegade
On the run
