Mickey's Bitch, On The Run

Open windows hide your children Open windows or through the floor Barbed wire rusty impale Underneath my tight shut door Open windows hide your children Open windows or through the floor My next victim lies in waiting Nobody could be so sure

I'm a renegade I'm a renegade I'm a renegade On the run

Listen to me this is my plan
Bolt the fences like the horse
Listen to me while you still can
The time has come so show your force
Listen to me this is my plan
Bolt the fences like a horse
Any moment guards will shout out
Evening watch has run it's course

I'm a renegade I'm a renegade I'm a renegade On the run

Open windows hide your children Open windows or through the floor My next victim lies in waiting Nobody could be so sure

I'm a renegade I'm a renegade I'm a renegade On the run

I'm a renegade I'm a renegade I'm a renegade On the run
