

Mickey Thomas, Sing

There's a wind comin' off the river
Blowin' out the lights
The city's being swallowed by the night
As I walk the streets and shiver
I've got a choice
I could be swallowed too
And lose my way as millions do
Or I could raise my head and raise my voice

(Sing)
When the feeling gets too strong for words
When I'm fighting to break through

(Sing)
When the song in me demands to be heard
There's only one thing I can do

I sing
Na na na whoa
Na na na hey
I can do anything
When I sing

I am searching for salvation
Down a long, lonely road
Every day is another heavy load
I've got to find a way
To say the thing I've got to say
Cuz if I don't let go, I will explode

(Sing)
When the feeling gets too strong for words
When I'm fighting to break through

(Sing)
When the song in me demands to be heard
There's only one thing I can do

I sing
Na na na whoa
Na na na hey
I can do anything
When I sing

When you're young
You're told to hold you're tongue
Now I've found my voice
I've got to make some noise
(Yeah) Some noise

(Sing)
When the feeling gets too strong for words
When I'm fighting to break through

(Sing)
When the song in me demands to be heard

I sing
Na na na whoa
Na na na hey
I can do anything
When I sing

I just sing
Na na na whoa
Na na na hey
Na na na whoa
Sing
I've got to sing

When I'm fighting to break through
Sing
When the song in me demands to be heard
There's only one thing I can do
And that's sing
(Sing)
