

Microbunny, Ether

When I don't speak I say everything
When I move on you will keep going strong

And he's
Staring out to see
Cars rolling by endlessly
Like waves on a pebble beach

(Break)

In these black days in fashion halls
In these black days in fashion halls
In these black days...

This black day's end

Wind is in my face and I'm older
And there's someone looking over my shoulder

In these black days in fashion halls
In these black days...

This black day's end
