

Middle Of The Road, The Talk Of The USA

Julie puts her make up on her face ev'ry day

she's a woman
yes I know

she's a woman
even so
she's the talk of all the USA

oh
yeah
the talk of all the USA.

I went out with Julie
to a party one night.

She's a woman...

I was mad I completely turned blind

she wouldn't let me love her
and it blew my mind
Julie said man
I must be very sure

she told me that she'd never been loved before.
Then I put my coat on we decided to go.

She's a woman...

On the way back home
I tried with Julie again

She's a woman...

In the car with remote controlled hands

I knew that little Julie
she would understand

when I got there before my very eyes

I'll tell you man
I got myself a big surprise.
Julie had that something other girls didn't have.

She's a woman
