

Midnattsol, Konkylie

Shadows of darkness
Reflecting the past
Afraid to breathe it all out Longing for hope and shades of green Telling me that I'll be free Seek your soft song Assuring me of my freedom and being ready to arise into Nirvana
Flashes of lightning and thunder release
a bitter taste that won't leave Clouds of blue passing heavily whose chosen path is unclear Konkylie
Reveal my soul
and aim your song for my cells
Konkylie
Behold my wish and never kiss me good-bye Every boundary between us breaks
And magic is dancing in the air I'll never forget the precious words You whispered in my ear that fragile night
