

Midnight Choir, Mercy Of Maria

As I drink too much
As I scream out of lust
At the moon for someone to touch me

As I fail to please
What the moon won't ease
I can't sit still from running wild

As I wipe my past
For something good to last
As demons are crawling under my skin

As I walk away
There's nothing to do but pray
That Maria will take me in her arms

At the mercy of Maria
Will I lay my aching head
At the mercy of Maria
Will I find my resting place

At the mercy of Maria
Will I lay my aching head
At the mercy of Maria
Will I find my resting place
