

Midnight Fall, Boys

Listen up, listen up, and I'll tell you all about the chances I have taken she appreciates the songs I've written and every single chance I get to play them out on stage, I take it every word I am spitting was carefully calculated and put together with the melody that flew from my chest now sing out loud please clap along to the beat now b-o-y-s h-a-v-e f- double e-l-i-n-g-s too now that you get it
I guess I was forgetting that she wishes she could care scream out if you want it I know that you need this
like you need air
now that I have found time to breathe and fully grasp the circumstances I found out that all I need is less than I wanted
like you need air
slow down now breathe in deep pick me up if you're entirely sure that you want it because I know that I do if you keep changing your side inside this situation I won't know where to aim if you could make up your mind anytime now I'd appreciate it but if you can't then I'll be on my way
b-o-y-s h-a-v-e f- double e-l-i-n-g-s too
