

Midnight Hour, Running Away

Dont lied and say that it is okay.
It is all right if there is nothing more to say.
So I am running away, I am leaving this place.
Im running away, Im running away.
Dont tell me, Im the one to blame.
It is too late for, you do make me stay,
Now I wont stay.
So I am running away, I am leaving this place.
Im running away, Im running away.
Im faster than you can follow me, from this lonely and face.
Im farther than you can find me, Im leaving, Im leaving too late.
I, I never let you find me, Im leaving you behind with your past, now I wonder back.
I, dont wanna hear you reasons, dont wanna hear you tell me why I should stay.
And try and try to understand me and try to understand what I see when I say I cant stay.
I, Im moving on for this place, Im leaving and I walk when Im running away
I am running away, I am leaving this place.
Im running away, Im running away.
