

Midnight Juggernauts, Aurora

Hideaway
Find a way
To hide away
Turn the page
Or fade away

All we need
Finally
Will come to me
Dawn will rise
Eventually

Oh, sun
Shines its light
On the streets again
As the day
Burns its way
Back to life

Searching for Something more
A brighter day
Broken dreams
Are washed away

Signs of life
Stars up high
Drift throughout the night
Time stands still
But years pass by

Oh, sun
Shines its light
On the streets again
As the day
Burns its way
Back to life

Sun
Circles up high again
Sun
Lights up the skies again

Here we come
Flags wil fly again
So we run
Through the fires again
