

Midnight Oil, Gadigal Land (feat. Dan Sultan, Joe

Welcome ro Gadigal land
Welcome ro Gadigal country
Welcome ro Gadigal land
Welcome ro Gadigal land
Do you know our story?
Welcome ro Gadigal land

Don't you bring your poison
Don't you bring your grog
Don't you bring your smallpox
Sure to kill our mob
Don't you bring your justice
Don't you bring your goals
Don't you bring your armies
Troopers on our trails

Some welcome to Gadigal land
Welcome ro Gadigal country
Welcome ro Gadigal land
Welcome ro Gadigal land
Do you know our story?
Welcome ro Gadigal land

We don't need your convicts
We don't need your thieves
We don't need your squatters
Or your emancipees
Don't you dam our rivers
Don't you fell our trees
Don't you carve our wilderness
Don't you net our seas

In the land where time stands still
In the land that's in a spell
Every day since th eday you came is a day of rage
It;s a day of rage

welcome to Gadigal land
Welcome ro Gadigal country
Welcome ro Gadigal land
Welcome ro Gadigal land
Do you know our story?
Welcome ro Gadigal land

It's unfolding
You'r unloading
Your high and mighty prison ships

We can live without your muskets
We can live without your guns
We can live without your strychine
We can live without your rum
We can live without your gallows
We can do without your chains
We can do without your massacres
The sorrow and the pain

So welcome to Gadical land
