

Midnight Sons, If Only Tears Could Bring You Ba

How will I start tomorrow without you here?
Who's heart will guide me while all the answers disappear?
Is it too late, are you too far gone to stay?
Best friends forever, should never have to go away!

What will I do? You know I'm only half without you
How will I make it through?

If only tears could bring you back to me
If only love could find a way
What I would do, what I would give if you
Returned to me, someday, somehow, someday
If my tears could bring you back to me

I'd cry you an ocean if you'd sail on home again
Waves of emotion will carry you, I know they can
Just let love guide you and your heart will chart the course
Soon you'll be drifting into the arms of your true north!

Look in my eyes, you'll see a million tears have gone by
And still they're not dry!

If only tears could bring you back to me
If only love could find a way
What I would do, what I would give if you
Returned to me, someday, somehow, someday
If my tears could bring you back to me

I'd hold you close and shout the words I only whispered before
For one more chance, for one last glance
Theres not a thing, that I would not endure.

If only tears could bring you back to me
If only love could find a way!
What I would do, what I would give if you
Returned to me, someday, somehow, someday
If my tears could bring you back to me...
