

Midtown, Is It Me? Is It True?

Is it me, is it true
every word I utter, lies sheds light on this conversation, it dies the hope that's in your eyes is it worthless, guess so while you've been dreaming,

I've been screaming
I wake up with nothing but false salvation lost translation
I need you for nothing at all....

Is it me, is it true
every word I utter, lies
sheds light on this conversation, it dies
the hope that's in your eyes
is it worthless, guess so

while you've been dreaming,
I've been screaming
I wake up with nothing but false salvation
lost translation
I need you for nothing at all....

sex is old, old and boring
when you're feelin nothing, somethings gotta make you feel

sex is old, old and boring
when you're feelin nothing,
somethings gotta make you feel

we'll listen to you but your words don't make a sound and if nothing is true we can build our own world

Is it me, is it true
every word I utter, lies (you've been dreaming, I've been screaming)

Is it me, is it true
(every word I utter, lies)

Worthless, so are you
