

Miguel Bose, Big Fun

Michael saw you, Judy saw you
I was at home
When Michael saw you laughing
Louder than the dress you wore

Promises sometimes can be relied on
I can remember a promise you made me
Stronger than the shoulder you cried on
Deeper than the stain you made

Big fun stumbles in love as long as it lasts
Big fun stumbles in love as long as it lasts
Big fun, big lie
Big boys don't cry

People can change
Weather can change
Even cities can change
Mountains slowly wear away
Funny how the pages you wrote then
Tell me just the same today

Big fun stumbles in love as long as it lasts
Big fun stumbles in love as long as it lasts
Big fun, big lie
Big boys don't cry

Big fun stumbles in love as long as it lasts
Big fun stumbles in love as long as it lasts
Big fun, big lie
Big boys don't
Big fun stumbles in love
Big fun, big lie
Big boys don't
Big fun stumbles in love
Big fun stumbles in love as long as it lasts
