

Mihai, Who You Are

she feels in love
it's something that she doesn't know what it is she's missing those days

and it's getting cold
she knows your arms won't hold her anymore she's driving with fog lights on driving alone

so tell her stranger
who you are
why won't you tell her
who you are
so tell her stranger
why won't you tell her

aud tecerea
ce domneste printer noi
si simt durera
ce ne bate pe anamdoi
aud tecerea
ce domneste printer noi
si simt durera
ce ne bate pe anamdoi

hell of a road
we took the sky with a blue parachute was that insane?
would you jump again?

where is your mind
won't you see she's fallen in a trap let's open up, plea
and open up, open up

who you are

so tell me why you treat her, treat her like a fool tell me why you
treat her, treat her like a fool

she feels in love but she doesn't know
