

Mika, Intoxicated

You're totally depressing
You treat me like a fool
And I'm caught up in the reasons
For the stupid things you do
You're so intoxicated
There's nothing I can say
And I feel as if I'm bleeding
From a thousand miles away
And all the stars are fading
So am I
And all the tears are breaking
So must I
You're totally depressing
You treat me like a fool
And I'm caught up in the reasons
For the stupid things you do
You're so intoxicated
There's nothing I can say
But I feel as if I'm bleeding
From a thousand miles away
And all the stars are fading
So am I
And all the tears are breaking
So must I
You're totally depressing
You treat me like a fool
And I'm caught up in the reasons
For the stupid things you do
You're so intoxicated
There's nothing I can say
And I feel as if I'm bleeding
From a thousand miles away
