

Mike Doughty, Like A Luminous Girl

Saw you in the subway station shining with a strange light Girl you're like a weird vacation How am i goin to make you mine make you mine

and Then I fell out on the streets to write a love song face stared out at me from an ad on a bus stop wall and I know that your fine and that you're right and the moon light shines like a luminous girl tonight saw you in the shipwreck disco ghost and drifting cross the floor wondering just where could this go and how to get you out the door.

face stared out at me from an ad on a bus stop wall
and the moon light shines like a luminous girl tonight
that' right

shining with the lights going strong

saw you in the morning sunshine you sang star love in the night fighting all the tears that came on squinting in the yellow light the yellow light then i met you at the station in Ronkonkoma so we can wish(?) laden with the thing s you are

and I know that your fine and that you're right
and the moon light shines like a luminous girl tonight jesus christ like a luminous girl tonight
