

Mike Doughty, Move On (Bloom Like The Sunlight

Down in the mouth and not half right but i can feel the changes comin on bloom like flowers in bluest night bloom like the sunlight in my song dum dumb dum dumb dum dum dumb bay dumb dumb move on move on dum dumb dum dumb dum dum dumb bay all of the words you can't say right burn my ass with anger to no end i love my country so much man like an exasperating friend

dum dumb dum dumb dum dum dumb bay dumb dumb
move on move on
dum dumb dum dumb dum dum dumb bay

now now now now now
now now now now now

yeah, i believe the war is wrong don't believe that nations can be steered lead the world by smarts and compassion by example, not coercion, force and fear

dum dumb dum dumb dum dum dumb bay dumb dumb
move on move on
dum dumb dum dumb dum dum dumb bay

ads for the army on cable between ads for soda and skin cream what about the kids you have signed up? do you really love them as you claim?

now now now now now
now now now now now

dum dumb dum dumb dum dum dumb bay dumb dumb
move on move on
dum dumb dum dumb dum dum dumb bay

down in the mouth and not half right
but i can feel the changes comin on bloom like the flowers in bluest night bloom like the sunlight in my song