

Mike Doughty, No Peace, Los Angeles

ice cracking
fickle junkie
your girl calls
where have you been last night?
loverboy
where you been hiding?

no peace
los angeles

coming down
wilshire boulevard
blurry stream of light
radio
road sign
and you are more awake
than is possible

and the true dope on salvation is two weeks in a clinic
and a public testimonial
you tell them kids
tell them not to hurt themselves speeding out from who you are

do this for the remembrance of me
