

Mike Ness, One More Time

the sky looks so dark looks like it might rain
my baby's gone
on the south bound train

come back baby
let's try it over
one more time
just one more time

she left me here
did not tell me why
i only know she left me here to cry

please come back baby
let's try it over
one more time
just one more time

she left me alone
on her own accord
guess i gotta leave her now in the hands of the lord

please come back baby
let's try it over
one more time
just one more time
one more time
just more time
one more time
one more time
one more time
