Mikolas Josef, Boys Don't Cry

So long
Times up
You told me I would be alright Coz you think
boys don't cry

So I'll keep waiting for the world to say it Until then sure Im fine

So if you're gonna say I'm bulletproof then
Come and break my heart
You think I'm cold but I
might fall apart
You always said that
boys don't cry
so I'm not crying
learned to hide the tears inside me
Come and break my heart

Is it strange
on bad nights
I gotta make it up to you Sometimes I want flowers too

You tell me
to man up when I finally speak my mind so now I never even I try

So if you're gonna say I'm bulletproof then
Come and break my heart
You think I'm cold but I
might fall apart
You always said that
boys don't cry
so I'm not crying
learned to hide the tears inside me
Come and break my heart

Oh
Yeah boys don't cry
I know (Yeah I know)
Yeah boys don't cry
Boys don't cry
so I'm not crying
learned to hide the tears inside me
Come and break my heart

yeah boys don't cry I know
yeah boys don't cry I know
yeah boys don't cry
Boys don't cry
so I'm not crying
boys don't cry
