

Mikoto, Courage Is Just Well Concealed Fear

Being alive never meant so much.
Your racing heartbeat tells you something, just stick around.
It simply says just stick around.
I thought you said that we were in this together.
The frustration is taking over me and I wont lose hope.
Stay young! Just dont let me down, giving up now.
I cant be held responsible for everything,
this time I wont let you down.
Motivation runs short,
close your eyes.
Cross your fingers and hope to die,
this is what, keeps me alive.
This time I wont, this time I wont let you down.
This time I wont I swear I wont let you down.
