

Milburn, Chesire Cat Smile

Oh how your minds not on it
Pass me a book
And i read you a sonet girl
Walls go up and
Guards come down
He's Banging on the door thinking
Where the fk is she now?

So open your mouth and
Stick to your guns
You gotta realise that
Shes indifferent
Woaaaaah whats your name
Just won't learn. Here we go again...

So it has come to an end
Things havent changed
Your still looking rough my friend

Things get broken
Things come clear
If you wanted to leave so much
Then why are you still here?

So open your mouth and
Stick to your guns
You gotta realise that
Shes indifferent
Woaaaaah whats your name
Just won't learn. Here we go again...

So open your mouth and
Stick to your guns
You gotta realise that
Shes indifferent
Woaaaaah whats your name
Just won't learn. Here we go again...
