

Milk Inc, Livin' A Lie

You put on a fight,
blaming me the feelings gone,
but I know you aint right,
I never felt it all along.
I hide away my fear,
hoping no-one will come near,
cause they cant see me when Im trying to be me.
Livin a lie,
tell me why I run and hide.
Livin a lie,
youll never know me deep inside.
I put on a smile,
and try to pretend that Im allright, cause its only a while,
till I can run into the night,
I hide away my fear,
hoping no-one will come near,
cause they cant see me when Im trying to be me.
Livin a lie,
tell me why I run and hide.
Livin a lie,
youll never know me deep inside.
You put on a fight,
blaming me the feelings gone,
but I know you aint right,
I never felt it all along.
I hide away my fear,
hoping no-one will come near,
cause they cant see me when Im trying to be me.
