

Milk Inc., Never Again

You took your love away,
Had nothing left to say.
I guess you're still too young to know,
You can't decide wich way to go,
Right now...

Never again!
Will I be broken,
Never again!
Will someone hurt my soul again,
My heart was open...
Never again will I fall.

I've seen this all before
You should learn to close the door
I guess you're still to young to know,
You can't decide wich way to go,
Right now...

Never again!
Will I be broken,
Never again!
Will someone hurt my soul again,
My heart was open,
Never again will I fall.

I guess you want your freedom back,
at least, that's what you told me...
I've seen it all before,
should learn to close the door.

Never again!
Will I be broken,
Never again!
Will someone hurt my soul again,
My heart was open,
Never again will I fall.
