Milk Inc, Perfect lie

Everybody makes mistakes when they are young

I've had my chance to learn

Time to move on

Thought of you as more than just a friend

But some stories

Were meant to end

You're not perfect, you're not flawless, you're not beautiful Though the one thing that was perfect were the lies you told

You're not perfect, you're not flawless, you're not beautiful No, the one thing that was perfect were the lies you told

And every reason why

Was baséd on a lie

Every reason why

Was just a lie

Every reason why

Was based on a lie

Just a perfect lie

Took a chance on you, but took a fall

How can I trust again?

Or love at all

Thought of you as someone I could trust

But some games are

Meant to be lost

You're not perfect, you're not flawless, you're not beautiful Though the one thing that was perfect were the lies you told You're not perfect, you're not flawless, you're not beautiful No, the one thing that was perfect were the lies you told

And every reason why

Was based on a lie

Every reason why

Was just a lie

Every reason why

Was based on a lie (on a lie)

Just a perfect lie (just a perfect lie)
