

Milla Jovovich, Holy Fall

brace myself
space myself
throw myself from the window throw myself from an aerial view of the highest a holy fall
it was a holy fall...

-Holy fall
it was a holy fall that brought me here
holy fall
it was a holy fall that brought me-wrinkled old doll face on her way to the ball i've got only myself to thank for it all i can picture you almost brushin up against me ican picture you almost touchin me and it's not dark at all it's not dark at all in here

-chorusyea, it brought me to this place into this gorgeous time
