Milla Jovovich, Ruby Lane

Welcome down to Ruby Lane Take your pick, sir We're all the same The sky is my one direction The earth is my bed

Welcome down to Ruby Lane Save your soul, man For life's a game receive me as a dancing monkey And throw me a dime

And if you see my brother You'll know 'cause he's wearing no shoes Won't you be so good, man As to throw him some food

You come back now and share your peace We'll still be here 'Til time's release I'm here with my one companion The road beneath my feet

And if you see my brother You'll know 'cause he's wearing no shoes Won't you be so good, man As to throw him some food

Welcome down to Ruby Lane Take your pick, sir We're all the same I'm here with my one companion The road beneath my feet I'm here with my one companion The road beneath my feet
