

Millencolin, The Mayfly

Everything's complete
The newly wed syndrome
The mayfly hit the street
Everybody in plus
Burnt out as can be
Watching you go home
It's crystal clear to me
You no longer need us
It's OK, we'll come around

Now, there's nothing left for us
We're packing up, saying goodbye
To a place no one can trust
To a scene based on a lie
I truly hope we won't retreat
The same mistake we won't repeat
The bond was stable as a shed
Love is mutual, love is dead

Everything went great
With lots of beginners luck
The mayfly on a skate
Timing in perfection
Bored out as can be
Monkey's getting stuck
The four of us agreed
We need to follow the action
Where ever that might be...

Now, there's nothing left for us
We're packing up, saying goodbye
To a place no one can trust
To a scene based on a lie
I truly hope we won't retreat
The same mistake we won't repeat
The bond was stable as a shed
Love is mutual, love is dead

Here I go
I'm tired about what all you say
Just one show, you owe it to the kids, so play!
That's all bull
The main thing's that we're having fun!
Said and done, said and done
I don't owe a shit to anyone

Now, there's nothing left for us
We're packing up, saying goodbye
To a place no one can trust
To a scene based on a lie
on a lie
I truly hope we won't retreat
To a scene based on a lie
on a lie
The same mistake we won't repeat
