

Millenium, You are the one

Ooo nananana
Ooo nananana
Ooo nananana
nananananana
Hope that you can understand me
You can see that I didn't try Hold your body next to my Wait another night
It's too late to say 'I'm sorry'
I can turn back my hands of time
After all I'll say 'I'm done'
I need your love tonight
Everyone is looking for something
And I always be at your side
Let me feel you are supreme me
There are somethings one can by
You are the one
The one I want
I'll love you more than ever
Over undone don't wanna be alone tonight
Stay with me
You are the one
The only one
And I need you more than ever
Don't make me cry
I'm lacking but not for same the day
Stay with me
You're the one
Ooo nananana
Ooo nananana
Ooo nananana
nananananana
I don't need to say I love you
Close your eyes and think of me
I've been waiting for so long
Love is all I need
Everyone is looking for something
And I always be at your side
Let me feel you are supreme me
