

Mimi Webb, Both Of Us

Summer of '17

You were you and I was me

Saw you out and everything went sideways

Traded my Friday nights

Just to do the things you like

You'd invite all your friends to my place, yeah

I looked at you differently

There's so much I didn't see

Had an epiphany

This love ain't big enough for the both of us

We had it coming

When you wore me down to nothing

Yeah, this love ain't big enough

Went and used it up and you just let me

Now I'm running on, running on, running on empty love

Now I'm running on, running on, running on empty love

Ain't big enough for the both of us

Introduced family

Told them you were good for me

Looking back it always seemed one sided

Put you first, second chances

Never worked, you took advantage

Now I'll be taking back what's mine, 'cause

This love ain't big enough for the both of us

We had it coming

When you wore me down to nothing

Yeah, this love ain't big enough

Went and used it up and you just let me

Now I'm running on, running on, running on empty love

Now I'm running on, running on, running on empty love

Ain't big enough for the both of us

Holding you close is holding me back

Packing my things and calling a cab

Putting me first 'cause this is the last time

I'll ever take the fall

Holding you close is holding me back

Packing my things and calling a cab

Putting me first 'cause this is the last time

'Cause this love ain't big enough

For the both of us

We had it coming

When you wore me down to nothing

This love ain't big enough

Went and used it up and you just let me

Now I'm running on, running on, running on empty love

Now I'm running on, running on, running on empty love

Ain't big enough for the both of us
